Head Coach Steve Johnson

Coach Johnson enters his fifth season at the helm for the Grizzlies. Johnson was the 2005 and 2007 Jayhawk West Conference Coach of the Year. In 2006 he was named the Central District Coach of the year by the ABCA, after leading Butler to their first appearance in the JUCO World Series since 1994. Johnson played at Barton County and at the University of Alabama-Birmingham before spending five years in the St. Louis Cardinals organization as a minor league pitcher. Johnson has been instrumental in the development of several major league players and moving numerous players to the NCAA level

Asst. Coach B.J. McVay

Coach McVay enters his fourth year with the Grizzlies. McVay is the hitting coach at Butler along with coaching outfielders and being the recruiting coordinator. McVay has coached 15 All-Conference players and two All-Region players. Previously McVay coached two years at Southeastern Oklahoma State University and one year at Barton County Community College. McVay played at Barton County and Southeastern Oklahoma State University. While at Southeastern he was a member of the 2000 national championship team.

Asst. Coach Rob Morrissey

Coach Morrissey is in his third year at Butler. Morrissey coaches Butler's pitching staff. Under his guidance Butler has had three pitchers receive All-Conference and one All-Region Awards. In Morrissey's time he has also seen three of his former pitchers selected in the Major League Baseball Draft. Morrissey previously coached at Millard West High School (NE) where in two years his teams won two state championships and posted a 85-23 record. As a player Coach Morrissey played two years at Butler and was a member of the University of Nebraska's Big XII Championship team in 2003.

CAMP INSTRUCTION

The Butler Baseball Camp teaches young athletes different aspects and phases and of being a complete baseball player. Looking at fielding, hitting, bunting, baserunning, throwing, and catching, the staff will cover all areas in order to make each player a better team and individual player. Does not include pitching instruction.

LOCATION

The camp will be instructed at Champions Training Center on the Butler of El Dorado Campus.
